Rove Pavilion Chair

This premium reproduction lounge chair is a beautiful mix of supple leather combined with a shiny chrome frame, just like the original. Renamed Rove Pavilion after the Spanish Pavilion for which it was designed in 1929, understated elegance has made this design one of the most iconic of the modern movement. This matching set is made with aniline leather which is thoroughly dyed all the way through to produce a beautiful patina over time. Also available as a matching set with ottoman.
